

CONNECTING CLIENTS WITH PROPERTIES IN COASTAL NORTH CAROLINA

Coastal Realty
CONNECTIONS

Expertise. Knowledge. Connections. They're the qualities that set Coastal Realty Connections apart from other coastal North Carolina real estate firms. If you're a buyer trying to navigate the best buys in the best locations, the Coastal Realty Connections team has the market knowledge, broker relationships and service mindset to fulfill your needs.

As a boutique real estate firm, we pride ourselves in delivering the high level of service and attention that discerning clients deserve. Our market area ranges as far south as the Brunswick Islands' beaches and as far north as New Bern, with Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach in between. We specialize in better homes and homesites in the most desirable coastal neighborhoods, and have an uncanny knack for matching clients with the perfect property. Most importantly, we develop meaningful connections with our customers that remain long after a sale has closed.

Buying Coastal Property

Starting your real estate search can be a little overwhelming, whether you're new to the area or a lifelong resident. Every real estate agent has access to MLS, and anyone with an internet connection can view thousands of listings in a given locale. At Coastal Realty Connections we save you time and frustration by guiding you through the search process, so that you don't waste energy viewing or visiting scores of properties that don't meet your requirements.

We'll carefully listen to your list of must-haves and help narrow your search to the properties that are the highest quality and best value within your price range and desired geographic area. For privacy reasons and other concerns, not all top properties are listed in MLS. Our extensive connections with area brokers allow us to share inside information on high-end listings that you won't always find advertised.

DONALD HOWARTH Broker-in-Charge

North Carolina's southern coast is unmatched in the natural beauty and way of life it offers. If you're considering relocating to the area, rely on Coastal Realty Connections to have an intimate knowledge of the premier homes and homesites for sale in the region.

The Coastal Realty Connections team has spent more than 20 years specializing in real estate sales in the coastal Carolinas, developing a vast knowledge of the area, and lasting relationships with clients and the brokerage community.

If you're looking to buy property, we're committed to doing the research and leg-work it takes to connect you with the ideal home or homesite. At Coastal Realty Connections, it's not our goal to be the biggest real estate brokerage in the area, just the best. Our boutique firm limits the number of clients we take on to ensure we can provide the high service level and attention you expect.
